A NOTE FROM BROTHER STEVE

An English/Drama teacher (my wife) told her students and me at times, "Breathe in through the nose and out through the mouth" for relaxation and patience. This is good advice as I think of the days ahead. We have some wonderful days coming and it begins, Sunday, July 5. Actually we have already experienced wonderful days and have "more" coming.

July 5 is a pivotal turning point as we continue to move forward in reaching out through God's ministries. These are exciting times as, together, we make a difference in the lives of those around us. Continue to pray as we move forward. In this process remember, "Breathe in through the nose and out through the mouth." May God bless you.
