A NOTE FROM BROTHER STEVE

In discussion with the church council, we continue our worship with caution and a respect to the uncertainty of health issues that surrounds our community, state, country and world. For your safety and at your discretion, temperature checks, hand sanitizer and facial masks are available. We care about your health. Thank you for your understanding.

This Sunday will be a service of family commitment to God for three children and their homes. It will be a time of dedication to God and support of the church. Pray for them and each other.

Next Sunday, October 4 will be Lord's Supper service. Next Wednesday, September 30, we continue our Bible study "Before Amen". Due to the death of a dear friend, meeting with the family and conducting the funeral, it became necessary for me to cancel this weeks study. See you next Wednesday (and of course this Sunday). God bless each of you.
