A NOTE FROM BROTHER STEVE

Alert! Alert! The time to change our clocks is approaching. In ten days (Sunday, November 1), Daylight Saving Time will end, which means we move our clocks "back" one hour. When did the idea of this change originate? The first known proposal to "save" daylight came from Benjamin Franklin's "An Economic Project" written in 1784.

The change has been the center of many discussions since that time.

We certainly have experienced "change" during 2020. I believe the key is to ask ourselves: "What have we learned from 'change'" and "What will we do with 'change'?" The real answer comes from God and our personal relationship with Him. November is a reminder to give "Thanks" and "Praise" because God is still in control. May God bless you.
