A NOTE FROM BROTHER STEVE

The beauty of the flowers, manger scene, star and other Christmas decorations in the church expressed the reason of the season: "Love came down to us". What an excellent job you did in making this love visual. You continued sharing your love to Carolyn and me through generous gifts, cards and words to which we say "Thank You" from our hearts.

As we close the unusual year of 2020 and open the chapter to 2021, Max Lucado gives words of advice on life's journey based on the life of Joseph. "You'll get through this...It won't be painless...It won't be quick. But God will use this mess for 'good'...don't despair...with God's help, you'll get through this...Trust God's heart when we can't see His hand working." Thus, we enter 2021. May God bless each of you.

Bro. Steve

Operation Christmas Child

For the 2021 year we will be trying something different for Operation Christmas Child. We would like to collect items all year long and then have a packing party in early November. Each month we will have a suggested group of items to shop for. These are just suggestions and please don't feel limited on what you're lead to donate. If there is a shoebox challenge for 2021 then anyone who sponsors the shipping for a box will receive a ticket. A basket will be placed in the foyer under the busy bags to collect donations. For the month of January the theme is cold weather accessories but many times our boxes go to warmer countries. I would suggest maybe socks, underwear, handkerchiefs, washcloths, or baseball hat instead.

Thanks, Mandy
