TETH

65 You have dealt well with your servant,

O LORD, according to your word.

66 Teach me good judgment and knowledge,
for I believe in your commandments.

67 Before I was afflicted I went astray,
but now I keep your word.

68 You are good and do good;
teach me your statutes.

69 The insolent smear me with lies,
but with my whole heart I keep your precepts;

70 their heart is unfeeling like fat,
but I delight in your law.

71 It is good for me that I was afflicted,
that I might learn your statutes.

72 The law of your mouth is better to me than thousands of gold and silver pieces.

Psalms 119:65-72

Dear Church Family,

The psalmist found that affliction brought him back from wandering away from God. Even when we go astray, God uses the distress and suffering in our lives to bring us back to Him. It is through our trials that we learn “all things work together for good to those who are the called according to His purpose.” (Romans 8:28 ESV).

In Christ,

Pastor Mike
