My soul longs for your salvation;

I hope in your word.

My eyes long for your promise;

I ask, "When will you comfort me?"

For I have become like a wineskin in the smoke,

Yet I have not forgotten your statutes.'

How long must your servant endure?

When will you judge those who persecute me?

The insolent have dug pitfalls for me;

They do not live according to your law.

All your commandments are sure;

They persecute me with falsehood; help me!

They have almost made an end of me on earth,

But I have not forsaken your precepts.

In your steadfast love give me life,

That I may keep the testimonies of your mouth.

Psalm 119:81-88

The Psalmist is advancing in age, "I have become like a wineskin in the smoke" (vs.83) and is waiting for the Lord to judge those who have persecuted him. Even if His justice is delayed, he will not forsake God's precepts. He finds comfort in God's love and in His Word. The Word of God is life for a believer.

JEFFERSON CITY – Missouri Baptists are mourning the loss – and celebrating the life of Don Hinkle, 68, founding editor of The Pathway.

“With great sorrow, we learned tonight (Sept. 22) that Don Hinkle, founding editor of the Missouri Baptist Convention’s Pathway newspaper, has gone home to be with the Lord Jesus,” the Sept. 22 Facebook post reads.

Please pray for Don’s family and friends as they grieve this loss. He will be dearly missed.
