TSADHE

137 Righteous are you, O LORD, and right are your rules.

138 You have appointed your testimonies in righteousness
and in all faithfulness.

139 My zeal consumes me,
because my foes forget your words.

140 Your promise is well tried,
and your servant loves it.

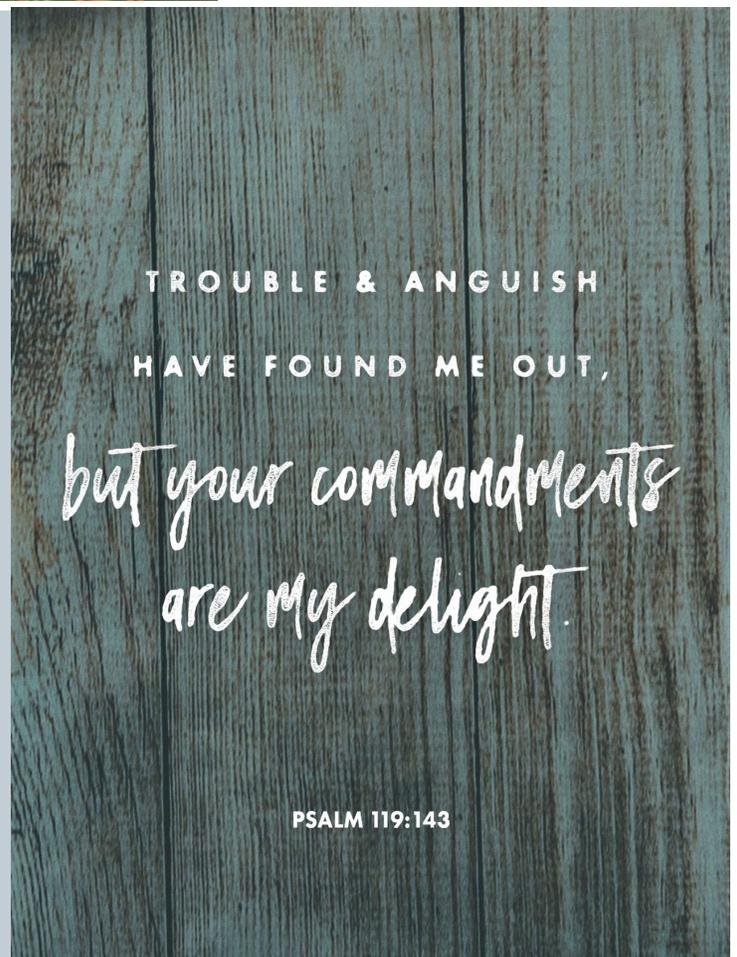

141 I am small and despised,
yet I do not forget your precepts.

142 Your righteousness is righteous forever,
and your law is true.

143 Trouble and anguish have found me out,
but your commandments are my delight.

144 Your testimonies are righteous forever;
give me understanding that I may live.

Psalms 119:137-144 ESV

READ THROUGH THE NEW TESTAMENT

In the last two weeks, you've read about an experience that happened to the father of Anne Lucas, a missionary kid who grew up in Nigeria. Last week, you read that Anne's father had loaded up his motorcycle "Miss Lottie" and went with a pastor to a remote village who had never seen a white man or a motorcycle, and more importantly had never heard of God and his son Jesus. The priestess of the village was extremely angry at hearing the gospel, and confronted Anne's father about why it had taken them so long to get to her with that news as she had been unhappy with her pagan gods and their inability to help her family and her village even though they regularly offered sacrifices to them.

The priestess grabbed Anne's father by the arm and pulled him toward a hut with a thatched roof. Inside were dead animals and rotten food in front of several hundred idols stacked every which way in the hut. The stench was overwhelming! The priestess again informed the missionary that those gods had done nothing for her village. They prayed, begged, and sacrificed, but the gods do not care. "They do not love us...You tell us about a God of love who has existed since the beginning of time. What took you so long to come tell us this wonderful news?" asked the priestess. She grabbed a piece of burning wood and set the whole house of idols on fire and then asked to be told about God and His Son, Jesus. She became a follower as did others in that village. In fact, the whole village became believers and influenced others in nearby villages to follow Christ.

This is the good work that is supported by your donation to the Lottie Moon Christmas offering. Imagine...villagers saved, an idol house burned to the ground, surrounding villages become followers all because of a man's obedience to God and an offering allowing his purchase of a motorcycle aptly named Miss Lottie!"

a life of radical obedience

Do you want or need to lose weight? Do you need support or help? On Thursday evening, January 12, 2023, a new group will be meeting at 7:00 p.m. to help each other lose excess weight. This group is open to men and women and will gather at Gayle Hadley's house at 401 East Benton. This group will provide assistance with Scripture, prayer, encouragement and mutual support. No charge! Those of you planning to attend the weight-loss meeting should bring a notebook, pen or pencil, and your Bible.

Volunteers Needed!
