Dear church family,

That verse to the right is the first Bible verse I memorized...only I learned it in King James, so it said "whosoever believeth in Him." I didn't even know what the verse really meant until I was older, but I could recite it, and will never forget it.

I think what excites me the most about our Wednesday night Connect Kids program for the elementary school kids is that they're memorizing scripture. They earn points for reciting it. They are learning scripture (and books of the Bible) put to melodies, so they are singing it. Scripture becomes a part of the fabric of their being. Even if they do not fully understand what they're saying or singing, they are learning about God and what He did for us. What a blessing it is!

Have a blessed week,

Teri (Church secretary)
